Rochester Lions President's Message.

Dear Rochester Lions Club Membership,

I want to thank you for the opportunity to learn about Leadership by acting as your President. I am not sure I am quite ready for the year I am about to embark on, I admit I am a little nervous but Lions membership is about serving and serving as your President seemed to me to be the highest level of serving.

For my first act, I want to move the July meeting with the understanding that the July 3 Monday would be very lightly attended due to the holiday. Therefore, the Board has agreed to the following schedule:

July 10th: Regular Meeting at River Crest

July 17th: Regular Meeting at River Crest

July 24th: Board Meeting at Community House

The biggest thing on the horizon right now for the Rochester Lions Club is the impending conclusion of the car raffle. There are six weeks left before the raffle goes and we still have 186 tickets left to sell. That represents $18,600 worth of charitable giving we will miss out on if we don't move the remaining tickets which would be a shame given that we had two years to sell this batch. What can you do to help? I am glad you asked!

You Can:

Call friends/family/neighbors and acquaintances and generally bring up the topic and ask people you know and meet to buy a ticket. With 70 members, if we each sold two we'd almost be there!

You can volunteer. We have three more events on the Car Raffle Schedule but we need help on only one, the Rochester Sidewalk Sale. Can you spend a few hours talking to friendly Rochester folks and selling tickets? We need help on July 13th, 14th and 15th. Please contact Celia or Dave to volunteer.

Lastly, I hope this is a great Lion Year for the club and please feel free to contact me for any reason but particularly about suggestions or ideas to raise money.

Lion Brett

DUES NEWS

Dues are currently $88 per year for the first member. The first member will be billed $22 per quarter for dues and $12 for the meal at each regular meeting you attend. All guest meals will also be charged to you other than prospective member guests. Family Membership dues are $52 per year for each additional member. Each additional Family Membership will be billed $13 per quarter and $12 for the meal at each regular meeting. Payments of dues must be paid in a timely manner, normally within 60 days.
