Rochester Lions President's Message.

Dear Fellow Lions

The 2019 Kris Kringle Market was one of the more successful Kris Kringle Market events of the last 5 years for the RLC. We showed improvement in all areas and sold about $900 of the cars and trucks for the Todd Minbirole Memorial Scholarship Fund. There are more cars and trucks to sell at our car shows this year. Thank you for all your hard work.

We continue to collect used eye glasses and hearing aids, shout out to Paul Clark for collecting eye glasses at the OPC and Weisman Optical and Celia Domalewski for her efforts at the Bloomfield Township Public Library. I collect glasses at Rochester Hills Public Library. If any of you have another location to place another collection box, please let me know.

On the website, you can find a sign-up sheet for the Fire and Ice Festival in downtown Rochester. Please, a few hours to contribute for this fundraiser on the weekend of January 17-19.

Unfortunately, I must inform you the wife of Lion Eric Lewis passed away, my condolences to Eric for his loss.

Good News, Lion Paul Clark's wife, Gerta is now home from the hospital after breaking her hip.

I'd like to take this opportunity to remind you of my theme for this year, "Just One". I'm asking every member to ask one person to join the Rochester Lions Club. Remember: "Just One"

Yours in Lionism

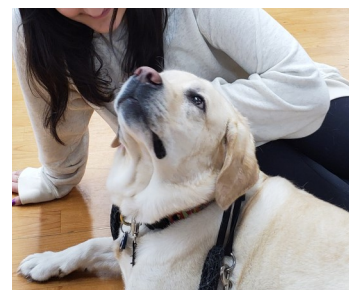

David L McKenzie-President, RLC

P.S. Happy New Year!

Lions Lowell and Kathy Gladd with career change Abbey visit students during Paws for Pups at Oakland University.

Abbey gives Lab Loves to students preparing for finals.
